GSSI 2022-23 International Real Estate Review Best Paper Awards

To promote research in real estate and show appreciation for the authors who submit articles to the International Real Estate Review (IRER), the Global Social Science Institute (GSSI) has established the GSSI Best Paper Awards for papers published in IRER since the end of 2018. Four best papers will be selected from the papers published from Issue 1 of Volume 25 (2022) to Issue 4 of Volume 26 (2023) for the following GSSI 2022-23 Best Paper Awards:

- 1 Gold Award: USD 10,000,
- 1 Silver Award: USD 5,000, and
- 2 Bronze Awards: USD 2,500 each.

The GSSI 2022-23 Best Paper Awards will be evaluated by the IRER editorial board members and determined by Editors on the papers published in the above issues of the International Real Estate Review. Papers affiliated by the Editors and Co-Editors of IRER shall not be eligible for award consideration. The prize awards will be announced at the 2024 AsRES Annual Conference.

Established in 1998, IRER has published four issues yearly since 2015. IRER has been indexed by ABDC, ESCI, EBSCO, Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI), Scopus, and RePEc. It has also been registered with CrossRef since 2020. Each paper is now assigned a unique DOI.

GSSI, a U.S.-based non-profit organization and the publisher of the IRER, is organized and operated for educational and charitable purposes. Its objectives are (1) to promote and conduct education and encourage research that applies academic theory and empirical analyses in real estate, housing finance, urban economics, and allied areas, (2) to provide financial support to students pursuing a graduate degree in the social sciences, and (3) to assist, maintain, and endow the study and research in real estate and allied areas.

Please submit manuscripts electronically via the link <https://www.gssinst.org/irer/submission/>.
